Buffaloes Will Meet Lumberjacks Saturday

West Texas State University's Buffaloes enter their 10th season under coach Joe Kerbel at 8 p.m. Saturday in Buffalo Bowl against the Northern Arizona University football squad.

In Northern Arizona the Buffs will be facing a club with a new coaching staff which opened its season with an impressive romp Saturday afternoon.

Northern Arizona, formerly Arizona State of Flagstaff, zip-coded past California Poly, 38-7 Saturday in Flagstaff. Former professional football coach John Symank took over as head coach of the Lumberjacks this fall. On his coaching staff is former pro quarterback Lamar McHan.

This will be the first year for Kerbel to have the double job of head football coach and director of athletics. He has been pleased with the showings of his ball club during a pair of scrimmage sessions, but is looking forward to seeing his team in an actual game.

The Buffs return only four starters offensively from last year's team which had an 8-2 record, but Kerbel feels the replacements have outstanding potential.

Leading the offense is All-America candidate Duane Thomas, a 6-2, 220-pound fullback who is the 10th leading rusher in West Texas State's history.

Thomas has 1,304 yards in two years—gaining 596 yards his sophomore year and 708 last fall.

Gone is NCAA record-breaking halfback Eugene "Mercury" Morris, but Kerbel feels he has a pair of excellent replacements in Olan Thompson and Ralph "Rocky" Thompson (no relation).

Olan Thompson has rushed for over 200 yards in each of the Buff scrimmage sessions. Rocky, on the other hand, has been injured, but is expected to be ready for action Saturday night. Both backs are speedsters—Rocky having run a 9.5 in the 100-yard dash during an intramural track meet last fall.

Kerbel Is Optimistic

Joe Kerbel, head football coach and athletic director at West Texas State University, said Monday night the Buffaloes "should be able to beat" Northern Arizona University Saturday night.

Even so, Kerbel, speaking to about 20 members of the Canyon Buffalo Touchdown Club, said he won't count the game a win until the final whistle blows.

The Buffs meet the Northern Arizona Lumberjacks at 8 p.m. Saturday in Buffalo Bowl. Kerbel said his team is in good shape, despite the loss of Dick Flynn, senior split end. Flynn suffered torn knee ligaments during last Saturday's scrimmage and will be unable to play for the Buffs throughout the season.

Also lost for the Buffs is senior flanker Charles Henderson, who is scholastically ineligible to play.

Kerbel said Flynn will be replaced by either Don Moon, a junior tight end, or sophomore split end Mike McCullough.

and Olan being a 9.7 sprinter. At the quarterback post will be Clarence "Pooky" Redic, a former all-stater at Odessa Eccles High School. Redic limited his duties last year as a freshman to placement kicking and was the fourth leading kick scorer in the nation with 67 points.

Redic and senior letterman Eric Roanhaus have been im-

The Buff mentor also expressed hope that WTSU can gain entrance soon into the Missouri Valley Conference. Currently, the Buffs are an independent team.

Kerbel said the spring sports program at West Texas is being beefed up primarily in an effort to get into the conference.

Kerbel announced at the meeting, the first of the season in Canyon, that only members of the club will be allowed to attend after the second meeting this season.

Membership in the club is $10.

Richard Pruitt, president of the local club, also placed on sale at the meeting, adhering "Go Buffs" stickers for automobiles. The stickers are made by Youth Industries in Amarillo. They are available at the Buff football office or from Pruitt.

The touchdown club meets at 7:30 p.m. Mondays in room 201 of the University Complex South on the WTSU campus.

Board Oks Funds, Jacobs Questioned

BY CARROLL WILSON
Canyon School Board members approved their 1969-70 budget Tuesday night after hearing a verbal assault from a county businessman spending by and for the superintendent of schools.

Fletcher Sims, who attends most of the school board meetings, questioned Superintendent Jerry Jacobs' postage allowance, travel allowance and salary.

"My kids don't go to school here," Sims said. "I think the quality of teaching has been lowered. Too much is spent on administration."

Sims' remarks ended a series of questions, the first of which concerned a $700 allotment in the proposed budget for postage for the administrative offices.

Sims noted that in the 1968-69 budget, only $350 was allocated for postage in central administration. He also said postage allocations were up sizeably in all areas.

Jacobs explained that the 1968-69 figures were estimates and said "we just made poor estimates."

Sims contended that one reason for the hike in postage allocation in the school tax office was because of increased mailing due to the school district's switch to computerized tax roll. The tax roll is now done in Austin.

"Why is this done in Austin?" Sims asked. "I thought you bought a computer two or three years ago that was supposed to do the tax roll. Didn't it cost about $20,000?"

Jacobs said the computer was bought prior to his coming to Canyon, but School Board President J. O. Parker said the tax office computer is "a lemon."

Jacobs said the district's bookkeeping is being done on the computer in the tax office.

Sims was also skeptical about the superintendent's travel allowance of $3,600 and his salary, which is $20,680.

Sims asked how many teachers in the district are making the maximum salary under state law. Jacobs said about 25 percent.

The board also set their depository pledge at $400,000 for securities.

In other action, Dr. Dudley Moore, school board member, suggested school facilities be used for school-related functions only. He referred to a dance held in the school cafeteria last weekend, and said he was a chaperone but really had no authority to discipline the dancers.

Dr. Moore said he was "amazed at how much alcohol I smelled."

Visit With President Possible For Two

A trip to the nation's capital and a possible interview with the President of the United States are in store this weekend for two representatives of West Texas State University.

Gary Cook, WTSU student body president, and Dr. Thomas P. Carruth, dean of student life, are representing the school at the Presidents-to-Presidents Conference, a meeting of student body presidents and administrative heads of universities across the nation.

"It's possible that we'll get to speak personally with President Nixon," Dr. Carruth said. The conference is scheduled for Thursday, Friday, and Saturday.

Responsible for arranging the interview is David Harmon, former WTSU student who is now national vice president of Associated Student Governments, the organization sponsoring the nationwide conference. Some 300 colleges are expected to be represented. Dr. Carruth is standing in for WTSU President Dr. James P. Cornette, who could not be absent from the campus.

Speakers at the convention are expected to include Secretary Robert Finch of Health, Education, and Welfare, and Gen. Louis Hershey, Selective Service director.

We say "that is true" many times when we should only say "there may be a little truth in that".

Basic Policies, Scope Of COG To Be Talked

The basic policies and scope of a regional planning commission will probably be the main points of discussion at today's meeting of governmental officials in Canyon.

Randall County Commissioners, hosts of today's 10 a.m. meeting, decided Monday that discussion on proposed by-laws should be reserved for a future meeting.

Officials from Randall and Potter counties and Amarillo and Canyon are to meet in the 47th District Courtroom to form this region's planning commission.

At least one other governmental unit—Swisher County—has said it will join with the four in the formation.

The Randall commissioners agreed that the basic purpose and function of the planning commission should be outlined before consideration is given by-laws. County Judge Carroll Brown, Potter County Judge E. H. Foster and Amarillo City Manager John Stiff are each working on by-law proposals.

Today's meeting will probably also include the naming of a temporary chairman and the establishment of a committee to draw up by-laws.

It was also suggested at Monday's meeting that members of the audience be allowed to ask questions following the business portion of today's meeting.

Commissioners Jim Fletcher and Bill Butler were appointed by the court to attend the 4th annual Intergovernmental Relations and Regional Planning workshop Sept. 28-30 in Austin. The workshop will feature discussions on aspects of regional planning.

The commission approved a request by Sheriff L. S. Johnston to advertise for bids for two new cars for his office.

One car, the sheriff's, is a 1968 model with 60,000 miles and the other, a deputy's, is a 1965 model with 122,000 miles.

A request by County Clerk Leroy Hutton to advertise for bids for 13 chairs for his office was also approved.

Commissioners approved a request by Mrs. Audrey Bruse, county tax assessor-collector, to attend a night course in real estate appraising at West Texas State University. Lloyd Welch, deputy assessor, will also attend the course.

Mrs. Bruse also informed the commissioner's court that she is compiling a small booklet which will list streets in Randall County and the various voter precincts. She said the booklets will be given election judges and various groups which help with voter registration.

In other action, the court appointed R. B. Gist Jr., St. Elliott and O. H. Ralph as a jury of view.

Eagles Will Try Taming Mustangs

Olton's Mustangs, a thoroughbred team last season, is in the rebuilding stage this year and head coach Jerry Blakely admits he hopes Friday night's game isn't embarrassing for his team.

The Mustangs, who boasted a 9-1 season last year, will meet Canyon's high-flying Eagles, who came out on top in last week's initial outing against Phillips, at 8 p.m. Friday in Buffalo Bowl.

Olton was beaten by Levelland 19-7 in last week's opener. Canyon had previously scrimmaged Levelland and looked good against the South Plains team.

Blakely said his team is young. Of his top 30 players, nine are seniors, 16 are juniors and five are sophomores.

He has only two returning defensive starters and none on the offense. Only six lettermen return.

But, Olton has a sophomore quarterback who scouts say can throw the football. Steve Stockdale, a 158-pounder, connected on an 11-yard try to Mickey Crowder, offensive end, for Olton's only touchdown last week.

Blakely says Stockdale "has been rather ineffective so far, but I think he shows a lot of promise."

Crowder is Blakely's best receiver.

On Olton's line, the man the Eagles will be watching for is Alfred Garcia, a 177-pound junior, who starts at both tackle and defensive end.

Garcia is reputed to have good speed and better than average pursuit.

Blakely says his defense is probably the better part of his team. Standouts on defense include linebackers Barry Cowart, 175-pound senior, Ronnie Sanders, 156-pound senior; Garcia at defensive end, and Gary Durham, 157-pound junior nose guard.

Olton works from the slot-I offense, the same offense the Eagles met last week against Phillips. In the Mustang backfield will be Stockdale, Durham and Cowart.

Defensively, Olton also uses a five-man line. Canyon was somewhat stymied by Phillips five-man defense last week during the second half of last week's game.

But, Coach Dunny Goode of Canyon said the Eagles are getting in good practice this week (See EAGLES, Page 12)

Research Finds Drugs Harmful In Pregnancy

BY CAROLYN RINEHART
Two tranquilizing drugs sometimes prescribed by physicians can cause damage to the embryos of experimental animals, if the mother is given the drug early in pregnancy.

This is the finding of a research project headed by Dr. Prentice A. Caraway at Killgore Research Center of West Texas State University.

Dr. Caraway started the project with golden hamsters in May. Already his findings cast suspicion on the tested drugs as being suitable for humans.

In the beginning, Dr. Caraway tested some 10 drugs on pregnant hamsters. Most of them he dismissed because they did not cause perceptible malformations in the embryos.

Two substances of the pentazocine group, however, were found to cause definite embryo damage.

They are tranquilizers which have been prescribed to relieve nervous tension, to replace morphine and codeine as pain killers, and to treat heroin addicts. They have been given to patients by dentists as painkillers after dental work.

"Based on present findings,"

Dr. Caraway said, "there is evidence that the drugs do have the ability to produce congenital malformations, especially in the brain, spinal cord, and circulatory system."

It is the responsibility of the drug companies, Dr. Caraway maintained, to test their products for safety before they are put on the market. The pentazocines, he said, are manufactured by several of the largest companies.

In Physicians' Desk Reference, a standard reference book of drugs, the companies claim

FROM THE CANYON RIM

Names of the new West Texas State University board of regents will be announced within the next few days.

An aide to Governor Preston Smith said eight of nine board members have been chosen and have accepted.

The governor told aides Wednesday morning that he would spend Wednesday afternoon finalizing the WTSU board but he was not feeling well at noon and rested during the afternoon.

"I expect an announcement within the next week or 10 days," said Bob Bullock, gubernatorial aide.

Bullock said he had no information on the impending appointment of a judge to fill the newly-created 181st District Court bench.

Canyon lawyers were saying Wednesday that Don Dean, presently an attorney in Amarillo but who moved there about five years ago from Lubbock, is a likely prospect. I could not confirm this at a late hour Wednesday.

Randall County Judge Carroll Brown is campaigning actively for the appointment but in my opinion, Amarillo Attorney Jerry Kolander has the best credentials.

Kolander, a native of Fulda, Minn., came to the Panhandle more than 20 years ago. I met him while he was a sports writer on the old Amarillo Globe-News.

Jerry switched from the sports to the news side and he and I labored in the vineyard together at Potter County court house and Amarillo city hall.

He passed the Texas bar and was appointed assistant Potter County attorney under John Peterson. Jerry ran for the office himself the following year and was elected.

He served two or three terms and then became the judge of the Potter County Court of Domestic Relations. It was here that Jerry gained bench experience that would stand him in good stead if he were appointed.

Kolander is a soft spoken man of keen intellect, slow to anger and quick to smile. He has an excellent rapport with fellow lawyers and would bring dignity and wisdom to any position he might be called on to fill.

Dee Miller, another dynamic young Amarillo lawyer, was mentioned for the judgeship but I have heard nothing in months to indicate his interest in the appointment.

I certainly hope the governor will lay aside all political considerations and make the appointment solely upon merit.

SS Clinic Saturday

A Sunday School clinic will be held Saturday at the First Baptist Church of Canyon under the direction of Ken Baker.

Convening at 10 a.m., local teachers and officers will meet in fellowship hall of the church for a presentation of the principles of Sunday School growth. At 10:30 a.m., the groups will go into conference sessions with Ron Martin in charge of the children's division; Bill Foil in charge of the youth division; and Zane Bartell in charge of the adult division.

Following a break for a noon luncheon, the local Sunday School directors and teachers will return to conference sessions until 2 p.m.

Purpose of the clinic will be to plan for the 1969-70 Sunday School at the church setting goals for departments and inspecting new materials.

Texaco Drills Wildcat Well

Texaco is drilling a wildcat oil well in Randall County.

Mrs. J. O. Parker said drilling began Tuesday morning on Parker's property 12 miles east of U. S. 87 on the Wayside Road.

The drilling is expected to go 5,200 feet.

Mrs. Parker said tests were run on the Parker farm last summer and this past summer.

Showers Forecast

Cooler, cloudy weather came to Canyon this week, with rains Saturday night, Monday night, and Wednesday. More rain is forecast by the Amarillo Weather Bureau.

Fifteen hundredths of an inch of moisture was measured at The Canyon News for the period from Saturday morning through Wednesday morning.

Palo Duro Canyon State Park had 1.4 inches during the same period, while Umberger had only a trace.

Ho Chi Minh is dead.

Some of the news magazines have all but made a hero out of Uncle Ho.

He was a ruthless communist leader and used terror as a tool of policy. If there is any Providential justice his passing could not have been easy.

At his behest millions were slaughtered. I can never think of Uncle Ho without thinking of pregnant women disemboweled, village chiefs tortured to death and innocent babies with sharp bamboo sticks driven from ear to ear.

No, Uncle Ho was not a hero.

Military men seem to be in accord in commenting on the administration's proposed termination of the draft.

"It won't work," they declare.

You seldom see an extremist of any persuasion who is willing to talk things out.

Both our ultra liberals and our ultra conservatives have some points in their favor.

The ultra liberal says feed the poor, nurse the sick and eradicate the slum. No one can argue with that.

But in the next breath he says level society, seize the wealth and regiment the power to produce. No one in his right mind could abide that.

The ultra conservative says respect the flag, fight communism and nourish private enterprise. No real American could find fault with that.

But to impose his will he deals in coercion, character assassination and displays little or no trust in his fellowman.

Both the ultra liberal and the ultra conservative have a deep seated fear of all government. I would not want to live in a state designed by either.

Bandsmen Check-In Early

Last week most college students were packing clothes, making last-minute visits with relatives, or simply enjoying a few more leisurely days at home.

This wasn't true, however, of almost 200 band members at West Texas State University, who were already at school with a demanding daily schedule of marching and concert practice.

Dr. Gary T. Garner, band director, and Don Baird, assistant, directed the marchers from atop a tower on the athletic practice field.

Almost half those marching wore the familiar maroon-and-white freshman beanies, which band freshmen must wear until after the first football game.

First game this year will be with Northern Arizona University Saturday night in Buffalo Bowl.

Band members have made up their minds to be in top form for the pregame and halftime shows, and two weeks isn't much time.

Last week the band packed four rehearsals into each day to achieve its goal. The 85 freshmen registered Monday, upperclassmen Tuesday.

From then on, the schedule went like this: marching, 8-10 a.m.; inside rehearsal, 10 a.m.-12 noon; marching, 4-6 p.m.; inside rehearsal in evening.

Friday night the band took a break for a picnic at the Canyon Country Club.

Band students living in dormitories checked in early by special permission, Baird said. Dorms were not open for general occupation last week.

This week rehearsals will continue as the band puts the final touches on its first show of the 1969 season.

"We'll have precision drill and formations, with at least one number featuring our seven majorettes," Garner said of the show.

Responsible for on-the-spot directing of the band's activities on the field will be the drum majors. Head drum major is Dana Raynard from Canyon. Mike O'Donnell from Midland is assistant.

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Edward Elkins, Jr., are at home at 2604 Sixth Avenue, No. 5, Canyon following their August 29th marriage at St. Paul Lutheran Church in Canyon.

Rev. Luther Kirk, Methodist minister and uncle of the bridegroom, officiated at the exchange of double ring marriage vows.

The bride is the former Miss Nancy Lewis Meyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Erwin H. Meyer of Canyon.

Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Edward Elkins, Sr. of Andrews.

An altar arrangement of white gladioli was used at the wedding ceremony where Mrs. Gerald Schultz was organist presenting "Sonata in G Major" by Bach as the prelude; "Sonata No. 2" by Mendelssohn as the mothers entered; "Trumpet Tune in D" by Purcell as the processional; "Trumpet Voluntary" by Purcell as the recessional; and "Coral Song" by Wesley as the postlude. Soloist, Miss Lynda Sharman, sang "Lord's Prayer" by Malotte.

The bride's sisters, Mrs. George Louder and Miss Sarah Beth Meyer, served as matron of honor and bridesmaid, respectively. They wore identical dresses of rose pink organdy over taffeta featuring empire waists. The streetlength dresses had flared sleeves and waists were banded with pink satin ribbon. They wore hair arrangements of pink ribbons and carried long stemmed pink carnations.

Miss Jackie Clevenger of Andrews, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl. She wore a dress of pink organdy featuring the same styling and the bride's dress and carried a basket of pink carnations.

The bridegroom's father, Franklin E. Elkins, Sr., served as best man and Randy Williams of Shamrock was groomsmen. Ushering were Fred Rathjen of Canyon, Charles Clevenger of Andrews and Joe Bill Worthington of Dallas.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of embroidered white silk organza over bridal satin. The gown was styled with an empire waistline, Peter Pan collar and Victorian sleeves of sheer organdy cuffed with embroidered organza. The back was accented with a short chapel train and she had an elbow length veil of organdy held to a headpiece of jeweled flowers. Her bouquet was a nosegay of pastel colored pompon mums with ties of pastel ribbon.

The home of the bride's parents was the setting for the wedding reception. Members of the houseparty were Misses Pat Scivally of Amarillo, Annie Lee Nunley of Hereford, Sue Ann Elkins of Dallas and Mesdames Jack Nunley of Hereford, Albert Meyer of Canyon and B. A. Burrus of Canyon.

For a wedding trip to the Davis Mountains in Southwest Texas, the bride changed to a brown and white A-line voile dress with rolled collar and tie featuring bell sleeves. She wore white accessories and had a travel corsage of white daisies.

Pre-nuptial courtesies extended the couple included a of Mrs. L. S. Johnston, Canyon.

The bridegroom's parents were hosts for the rehearsal dinner given at the Villa Inn in Amarillo.

The bride, a graduate of Canyon High School in 1967, is a senior sociology major at West Texas State University where she is a member of the Chi Omega national social sorority and the WTSU Sociology Club. She is employed with the WTSU Library and plans to receive the masters degree in library science.

A graduate of Andrews High School in 1966, the bridegroom attended McMurry College and is currently a junior speech major at WTSU. He is swimming instructor and life guard at the WTSU pool and was formerly employed with Brents in Amarillo.

Stewart And Karle Nuptials Performed

Wedding rites were performed at a late morning ceremony September 6th for Mrs. Inez Stewart of Floydada, Texas and Henry J. Karle of Hereford.

Herman J. Schelter, minister of the Emanuel Lutheran Church of Hereford performed the single ring ceremony that took place in the home of the bride's son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Grimes of Canyon.

The bride wore a pink silk A-line dress with matching pink shoes and beaded bag. The dress was accented with a matching waistline jacket with three-quarter sleeves. The only jewelry worn by the bride was an antique pearl necklace that used to belong to her grandmother.

A dark blue suit with black shoes decked the groom.

The bride and groom had double attendants with the bride's daughter, Mrs. LeLand Muhr wearing a sleeveless dress of brown and white with brown shoes and daughter-in-law, Mrs. Ray Grimes wearing a beige suit with dark brown shoes.

The groom's attendants were Ray Grimes and LeLand Muhr.

Soft music served as background for the reception held at the home.

The table was laid with a white heirloom tablecloth.

Serving as the centerpiece was the traditional white wedding cake topped with roses of pink frosting.

White mints, pink punch, and pink napkins gave a soft hue to the table decked with crystal and silver serving pieces.

SPEED READING CLASSES SET FOR CANYON

The famous Cutler Accelerated method of speed reading, created by Dr. Wade E. Cutler, who holds a doctorate in psychology, will be taught here in both day and evening classes.

The average person today reads some 200 words per minute with about 60% comprehension - a rate inadequate to cope with today's reading demands in school, college, and business.

This widely acclaimed course guarantees its graduates will read at least 1,000 words per minute with a definite increase in comprehension.

Many graduates of the nine-week program far exceed the guarantee and complete with rates of 2,500 and more words per minute with far better comprehension.

Concentration, recall, study and test-taking skills show a remarkable degree of improvement.

Such achievement means that a person can read books of average length in 45 minutes or less, and understand, remember, and enjoy them better than ever.

This remarkable accelerated reading and study course is offered here exclusively by Accelerated Education Schools with locations in major cities in Texas, New Mexico, Louisiana, and Oklahoma.

This professionally conducted course boasts over 10,000 successful graduates due to its common sense approach to better and faster reading, and to its staff of professionally qualified master teachers.

A series of meetings has been scheduled for those in the Canyon area who desire to know how they too may learn to read with greater speed, power, and efficiency.

At these free one-hour orientations, full details about speed reading and the unique Cutler Accelerated Method will be given to those forward-looking persons attending.

Since there is no cost or obligation by attending, you owe it to yourself to attend the time most convenient for you.

ROTC Offers Commission With Education

If the military draft is a thorn in the side of today's male college student, many of the alternatives are even stickier.

For most college-age men, the draft poses a problem, a problem concerned with how to serve as painlessly as possible, while at the same time putting to use college degrees.

With the college graduate, the U. S. Army, which benefits most from the draft, also faces a problem.

"Men with college degrees usually make lousy privates," says Lt. Col. Billy R. Smith, professor of military science at West Texas State University.

The Army apparently agrees because the solution to its problem and that of the college student is available in universities themselves.

The college graduate can take his place in the Army—not as a private, but as a lieutenant—through the Reserve Officer Training Corps (ROTC) program.

Since its inception at West Texas State in 1952, more than 500 graduates have received commissions as second lieutenants in the Army through the local ROTC program.

Nationally, the Army requires about 15,000 new officers each year. Of these, all but about 550 come from ROTC and Officers Candidate School. ROTC traditionally provides about 85 per cent of the new officers for the Army.

Col. Smith, who hopes to have about 450 students enrolled in ROTC this year at WTSU, said the ROTC program "enables a college student to earn an academic degree in a field of his choice and an officer's commission at the same time."

At West Texas, the ROTC program is completely elective to the student. He may enroll as a freshman or sophomore in either ROTC, physical education or band.

The department of military science at WTSU offers two programs for male students to obtain commissions. One, the four-year program, is generally for the freshman student who will complete the 20 hours of required course work in his four college years.

The other program, the two-year program, is usually for junior students. For the two-year student, a basic six-week summer camp prior to his junior year replaces the first two years of military science instruction.

Courses offered by the WT department pertain to the history and organization of the Army, tactics and operations, map reading, leadership, military law, and weapons training.

The basic course of instruction, normally taken in the freshman and sophomore years, is concerned with the history, leadership and weapons.

The advanced course, taken in the junior and senior years, is only for students who have demonstrated a potential for becoming effective officers. Students in the advanced course are paid $50 per month during the school year.

A six-week advanced course summer camp is held between the junior and senior years. Pay at the camp, which is held at a regular military post, is one-third that of a second lieutenant.

Students who join the two-year program must attend both the basic and advanced summer camps.

After an ROTC student has graduated, he may request a deferment to complete full-time graduate studies before entering active service. The deferment will not lengthen his active service obligation.

While participating in the ROTC program, the student is provided with all textbooks, uniforms and equipment required for ROTC courses.

In addition to the regular military science curriculum, the ROTC student may join several extra-curricular organizations, including the ROTC band, the counter-guerilla unit, the Sam Houston Rifles Drill Team, the Angel Corps Drill Team, the ROTC Rifle Team, or the Society of the Scabbard and Blade.

The band consists of between 20 and 50 volunteers, who play for all military cadet affairs in the Panhandle.

The counter-guerilla unit is the Special Forces of West Texas ROTC. Training in patrolling, bayonet and mountain warfare are stressed.

The Sam Houston Rifles Drill Team, which was organized in 1954, provides basic Army drill and fancy drill. The team is involved each year in competition with other Southwest schools.

The Angel Corps Drill Team is much like the Sam Houston Rifles in that it also performs basic and fancy Army drill. It was begun for women students in 1967.

The ROTC Rifle Team is organized for shooting competition in the state.

The Society of Scabbard and Blade is open to students with a 2.0 grade average in military science, a 1.3 grade average in all subjects and who are enrolled in the advanced military course.

Although completion of the ROTC program provides a student with a Reserve Officer commission, he may, through the competitive Distinguished Military Graduate program, apply for a Regular Army commission upon graduation.

The DMG program is open to ROTC students who have completed the basic course.

Four-year scholarships are available for students entering college as freshmen. Two-year scholarships are available for outstanding students who complete the ROTC basic course and enter the advanced course. In addition to paying tuition, books and laboratory expenses, the scholarships provide $50 a month for the duration of the scholarship.

The course is scheduled to begin September 22 at 7:30 p.m. in the Vocational Agriculture Building at Canyon High School. During the dates of the course, Walkup will be available to assist farmers with individual problems and to provide on-the-farm instruction, according to vo-ag instructors Marcus Phillips and Jim Walker.

"Tuffy" Golf Tournament Rescheduled

Canyon Country Club Golf Pro, Al Forrester has announced the postponement of the "Tuffy" Tournament scheduled to be played Sunday, September 21.

This date conflicts with the Invitational Tournament to be held at Hereford and many players of this area will be wanting to enter the Hereford tourney.

The "Tuffy" tourney is one where the course has been toughened to make the play more difficult. Tee boxes are to be lengthened and greens cups will be changed to make putts more difficult.

A rescheduled date for this tourney will be announced by Forrester later.

19 Injured In Randall In August

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated 19 accidents on rural highways in Randall County during the month of August, according to Sergeant Jack Crownover, Highway Patrol supervisor of the area.

These crashes resulted in seven persons injured and an estimated property damage of $15,100.00.

The rural accident summary for this county during the first eight months of 1969 shows a total of 110 accidents resulting in three persons killed, 49 persons injured, and an estimated property damage of $112,740.00.

With the beginning of school, the sergeant reminds all motorists of the state law regulating traffic in regard to school buses.

"The driver of a vehicle upon a highway outside of the limits of any incorporated city or town upon meeting or overtaking from either direction any school bus which has stopped on the highway for the purpose of receiving or discharging any school children shall stop the vehicle immediately before passing the school bus, but may then proceed past such school bus at a speed which is prudent, not exceeding ten (10) miles per hour, and with due caution for the safety of such children."

Calvary Baptist Revival Begins With Fellowship

Revival for Calvary Baptist Church of Canyon will be kicked off Saturday evening with a "get acquainted" supper for the evangelism team and local members at 6 p.m. in fellowship hall of the church.

Special guests at the supper will be Loren M. White, revival evangelist, and Bill Webb, revival musician.

The revival will begin with regular worship sessions on Sunday. During the revival week, services are set for 10 a.m. daily and at 7:30 o'clock evenings.

The evangelist, Loren M. White, was born October 11, 1930 in Callahan County and spent a majority of his childhood in Oklahoma. He graduated from Sulphur High School in Sulphur, Oklahoma in 1948 and attended Oklahoma Baptist University from 1948-51. He earned the B. A. degree from Texas Tech in 1952 and is majoring in psychology and the B. D. degree from southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in 1956.

lumbus, Ohio, Sowers Baptist Church in Irving, Northside Baptist Church in Midland, First Baptist Church in Denver City and has been with the Baptist Temple in San Antonio since July 1964.

He participated in the Australian Crusade in the spring of 1964 and in the California Encounter in 1968. He has conducted revivals in Oklahoma, Ohio, Texas, Arizona and California and has been active in radio and television ministry in Midland, Denver City and San Antonio.

Married to the former Phyllis Tipton of Levelland, White and his wife have three children, Sammy, 16; Gary, 14; and Connie, 13.

A native of Pampa, Bill Webb (the revival singer) is a graduate of Wayland Baptist College and the Southwestern Seminary in 1960. He pastored the Rock Creek Mission at Borger, 1960-63, and the First Baptist Church in Mulvane, Kansas, 1964-68.

He has been director and Bible teacher at West Texas State University since July 1968. He has directed music in two churches and has led music in a number of revival meetings.

Webb and his wife, Guyda, who teaches in Canyon Public Schools, have two daughters, Shelly, 8, and Davalyn, 2.

Kyle Balke, 9, holds prize-winning "Baby John," a Dutch rabbit, in position for the camera as brother Kirk, 5, looks on. The Balke family of 4217 Gary Lane in South Amarillo has a hobby of breeding and showing the little rabbits.

Prize Rabbits Are Hobby

Kyle and Kirk Balke had a special reason to be glad when Tri-State Fair time came.

They and their parents showed off four of their furry little pets—registered Dutch rabbits. And although they didn't do as well as they have done in other shows in the past, they did come home with ribbons.

In the youth division, one of their does won a first. A buck won first in the open division, and two other bucks won second.

Now they're looking forward to a show in Vernon, Tex., which they'll enter next month.

"We've won something in every show we've entered so far," Mrs. Balke said, shuffling through her pile of ribbons, mostly blue.

Picking up a red ribbon, she said, "This one got second place only because another rabbit of ours had won first."

Cash prizes ranging up to $8 are also offered at rabbit shows, but it's clear that a rabbit breeder can't get rich this way.

"It's just a good family hobby," Mrs. Balke said.

Richard Balke, her husband, built a sturdy wood rabbitry with wire hutchers near the ceiling on both sides to house the sensitive little animals. They bought a few rabbits from some friends in Amarillo about a year ago to start. Now they have 15.

Balke is a physical therapist and director of the Children's Rehabilitation Center in Amarillo. The center has programs for crippled children, including those with cerebral palsy.

"He works long hours," Mrs. Balke said, "and we're family people. Our rabbits give us something we can all do together."

Kyle is nine years old and a third-grade student at Gene Howe Elementary. Kirk is five.

The Balkes raise three of the six acceptable colors of Dutch rabbits. Each of the boys has a color—chocolate or blue—assigned to him, and rabbits of that color are his. Father's are black.

What about Mama? "Oh, I just supervise all of them," she said. All Dutch rabbits are patched with white.

The Balkes have entered shows in Gatesville, Vernon, Wichita Falls, Roswell, and Amarillo. "Once we drove 1,000 miles round trip to Gatesville with just one little rabbit," Mrs. Balke said.

Dutch rabbits are much smaller than the common New Zealand white variety, and their eyes are dark, not pink. In shows, the judges look for a short, round body and, surprisingly, short ears.

When a rabbit wins three first places or best opposite sex prizes in shows, he is a grand champion. The Balkes have two. They are also proud of a third, who was born in the Balkes' own rabbitry and has already been successfully shown.

Rabbits' care is simple, but it must be done every day. They must be fed and watered.

"We feed pellets, oats, and hay," Mrs. Balke said. Balke gives the little animals penicillin shots when they have colds, to ward off pneumonia. He also tattoos their ears, as show rabbits must have a readable ear tattoo for identification.

"Rabbits can stand cold very well, but in the summer they have to be fanned," commented Mrs. Balke.

The handler must be careful taking them out of the hutch, because they can kick and scratch when threatened. Also, when frightened they can stretch the skin of their white feet enough to tear it. When it heals, dark hair grows back between the rabbit's toes, a feature that disqualifies him for show.

Three litters of baby rabbits have been born in the Balkes' rabbit house. "The hailstorm in June upset two of our mother rabbits so much that they stopped taking care of their babies and all died."

She said the baby rabbits open their eyes in 10 days after birth.

In three weeks, they start venturing out of the nest box.

The Balkes sold several rabbits at Easter. "We were particular about who we sold them to," Mrs. Balke said, "and we made sure they weren't going to eat them, either."

Dutch rabbits are too little to be commercially valuable as food.

Fair Art Lists Two

Two Canyon residents have been listed among winners in the Tri-State Fair art exhibit.

In the adult division, a third place oil painting was by Pat Alford of Canyon.

Woody Crouch won third place in the student division with a graphics entry.

Drawing Set By Boosters

Selling chances on a trip to Dallas to see a Cowboy football game was proposed Tuesday night by the Canyon Eagle Booster Club as a fund-raising project.

About 60 members of the club, meeting in the high school auditorium, decided on the project to raise money to pay for the weight machine they donated to the school recently.

The machine, which gives exercise similar to weight lifting, can be used by 11 persons at one time.

A committee was picked to make arrangements for the trip to Dallas, including transportation, lodging, and game tickets that will be taken by the winner of the drawing.

The project will be discussed again at the club's meeting next Tuesday at 8 p.m.

Also at this week's meeting, high school cheerleaders gave a demonstration of yells. Club members watched a film of the Canyon-Phillips football game, and coffee and soft drinks were served.

Bonneville

(We take the fun of driving seriously.)

This is the way it's going to be. Pontiac's 70's

Surprised that Pontiac's setting the style for the umpteenth straight year? Of course not.

But you may be a bit dazzled to find out that Pontiac finally outdid Pontiac.

Take Bonneville. From the strong, new bumper grille to the standard 455 under the hood, it's a rouser.

Inside: instant limousine. So luxurious some of the traditional big boys are already screaming.

One of the nicest things we could have done for Grand Prix's luxury was to leave it alone. We did. But we popped in a 455 V-8 for you to order. (It's an old Pontiac proverb that luxury should have power.)

Enter LeMans Sport. A brand-new series in the Pontiac stable. Wait! Competition sees it pull the new 400-cubes-under-the-hood trick. We'll show you that one if you check the right box on the order form.

By now, you've spotted our '70 GTO. But maybe you haven't heard it. A sound so tough we've thrown modesty to the wind and dubbed GTO "The Humbler."

This is Pontiac '70. And we figure this is the way driving's going to be. So why wait?

It's at your Pontiac dealer's now.

MARK OF EXCELLENCE Pontiac Motor Division

Our World

BY ANN BROWN

One might conclude from the government edicts that the sole purpose of the public schools is the mixing of the black and white races. Has there ever been any concern for a "racial balance" of Orientals, Spanish, Indian, or other minority groups? Why the furor over black and white?

Just what is there about seating a black child beside a white child that increases his ability to learn? In fact, the evidence is all to the contrary.

The Public Education Association reported in 1955 that Southern Negro children moving to New York scored an average of two grades higher on achievement tests than those in the New York City schools.

Some individual teachers explain the reason:

One northern teacher expressed bewilderment at all the fuss over Negroes in white schools. She said she had always had a few Negro children in her classroom, and they had been no problem. She added that if they wanted to learn, she taught them; if not, she ignored them.

A young high-school teacher in a small, South-Texas town said he had a number of sullen, rebellious black boys in his classes. He suggested they go to the back of the room and keep quiet until they were old enough to drop out. They did, and he had no problem with them.

Would any competent black teacher have allowed such behavior from black students? The white teacher may have handled the situations the best way possible under the circumstances. But the children failed to get an education.

And both black and white children will be deprived of the opportunity to learn unless lawmakers stop using the public schools for a political football.

The Governor of Georgia has pointed out the rank hypocrisy of the outspoken integrationists who send their own children to private schools.

The very people who declared black schools should be abolished because of the poor quality of teaching in them, have contended the most dogmatically that those same "poor quality" teachers be employed in white schools. If they are not qualified to teach black children, why are they qualified to teach white ones?

Of course, that is immaterial to judges and senators; if they have school-age children they send them to private schools anyway. It is just a matter of "let's you integrate."

The majority of Negroes are probably more unhappy about the abolition of black schools than white people are. It is they who are being the most severely deprived of an education. Anyone with experience in the area knows that black teachers are more effective with black children, and white teachers are more effective with white children.

In Atlanta, Ga.; Charlotte, N. C.; Iberia and Iberville, La.; Florence, S. C.; and Grand Rapids, Mich., Negroes are protesting the closing of the Negro schools. They are picketing the locked buildings, boycotting the buses and holding classes on lawns.

What is the first consideration of young parents when they shop for a home? The school, of course. They will make almost any sacrifice to live in a good school district. And the highest property tax that any family is likely to pay is the school tax.

What is fair about taking the children from a selective, highly taxed district and sending them to another neighborhood to achieve racial balance? It is so ridiculous as to defy belief. And that parents would tolerate it is incredible.

Conditions in the Negro schools in New York, Washington, and Chicago are reportedly so violent that the teacher drop-out rate is "astronomical." In one high school in Chicago's south side, 41 of 85 teachers are new. It seems that the goal of the teacher is no longer to teach but to survive.

The proposed solution, as usual, is a $250,000 federal grant program designed to "sensitize the teacher to intercultural needs." Teachers are instructed not to respond with anger or shock when students are obscene, drunk, or violent. The object is to learn to communicate with the student in his own language, and not to "add to the hostilities he brings to the classroom."

In most schools, students are encouraged to learn to speak the teacher's language, rather than their own, and to control their emotions rather than give vent to them.

What benefit does society derive from paying teachers to emulate the students? What is "teaching" anyway?

If there are advantages to integrated schools, they have not been publicized. There are many disadvantages--such as the parents having to patrol the halls at noon to protect their children.

If the Marines with their rigid discipline cannot keep blacks and whites from killing each other, how are unarmed public-school teachers supposed to keep order among militant students?

This is integration. Is this what Americans want in public schools?

Drugs...

The drugs have been tested but they do not give information on the type of test or the kind of laboratory animals used.

Golden hamsters were chosen for Dr. Caraway's experiment because of their short gestation period of only 16 days. He thinks the results will be ready for scientific publication next spring.

So far, 350 embryos have been studied. A hundred of these are controls; the mother was injected only with sterile water. The others were subjected to the drug. The pregnant female was injected with a calculated dose of the drug in her abdomen on the eighth day after mating.

Of the tiny embryos subjected to the drug, 10 per cent have abnormalities that can be seen from the outside. Dr. Caraway calls this a high percentage.

"I don't think the Food and Drug Administration would take the drugs off the market based on our findings alone," he said, "but I would strongly suggest that further testing be done with other animals."

Effects of the drugs on the embryo are especially insidious because they take place in the very early stages of pregnancy. In a human mother, it would be in the first eight weeks.

This is most often before the woman herself knows she is pregnant.

Dr. Caraway's research is patterned after similar projects which proved embryonic damage from LSD and mescaline, popular with the "hip" set.

The hamster embryos, less than a half inch long, are studied first for gross abnormalities. Then paraffin is poured around them. When it hardens, it is sliced with a device called a microtome into very thin cross-sections.

The sections are then dyed for microscope viewing and photography.

Dr. Caraway is now studying these slides for evidence of internal abnormalities.

Assisting Dr. Caraway on the project are William Miracle and Thomas Harper, both graduate students from Amarillo.

Dr. Caraway, a professor of biology at WTSU, is teaching freshman biology, embryology, and a graduate course this fall besides his research.

Before coming to Canyon five years ago, he was head of the biology department at Tarleton State College in Stephenville for 12 years. He spent a summer at Oak Ridge Institute of Nuclear Studies, doing research on the effects of radiation on the embryo.

Shopping Center in Amarillo. Hank Brown, director of the WT Ex-Students Association, said he expects more than 6,000 persons at the rally. He said the bonfire would be the biggest in Amarillo's history--even larger than last fall's.

WTSU cheerleaders and the Buffalo band will lead yells and play music at the pep rally, which will be from 9 to 10 p.m. in a vacant lot behind Western Plaza.

The 1969 Buff team will be on hand, and Head Coach Joe Kerbel is expected to address the crowd.

When the buses with students arrive in Amarillo, they will be given an Amarillo Police Department escort through the city to the bonfire site.

To coincide with the pregame activities, merchants in Sunset Center will remain open until 9 p.m. Thursday and stores in Western Plaza will stay open until 9 p.m. Friday.

After the bonfire and rally, the buses and students will return to the WTSU campus, where Carney will stage another performance.

The football game Saturday night and the following dance, hopefully termed a Victory Dance, will end the week's whirlwind of college activities.

Earlier in the week, free dances were given by the Student Activities Council on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday nights.

Freshmen underwent orientation Monday and counseling Tuesday.

pressive with their passing during early drills.

Both halfbacks, flanker Robert Jackson and tight end Willie Walker are all accomplished pass receivers. Split end Dick Flynn injured a knee in Saturday's scrimmage session and will probably miss the opener. He will probably be replaced by either squadman Daryl Wynn of Follett or Tulsa sophomore Mike McCullough.

The defense returns eight defensive regulars, including all four defensive backs. Corner backs Billy Lantow and Gary Conner return, as do Ralph Anderson and Raymond Brown at the safety spots.

Redie and little Matias Garza will again handle the placement kicking, although Rocky Thompson has considerable talent along those lines. Roland Reichardt will again do the punting for the Bufs. He averaged 39.1 yards per kick last fall.

Northern Arizona quarterback Bobby Stuart, a transfer from the University of Texas at El Paso, hurled three touchdown passes in leading the Lumberjacks past Poly. He hit on 14 of 25 passes for 231 yards.

End Bobby Gray had seven receptions for 144 yards and two scores.

The Lumberjacks rolled up a 19-0 halftime lead and then coach Symank filled the field with reserves during most of the second half.

Northern Arizona's aggressive and large defensive line limited Poly to 128 yards rushing and 45 passing. Poly was unable to complete only five of 19 passes during the contest.

Saturday's game will be Hereford Night, with grade school children from that city being admitted to end zone seats free of charge.

preparing for the Olton offense and defense.

Goode is also preparing his defense for an expected Olton blitzkrieg from the air.

The coach is optimistic about his defense, particularly in the passing department. He said they did well against Phillips.

"If we playlike we did last week, we have a good chance of winning the game," Goode said. "The Eagles have the best attitude of any group I've ever had."

Olton, no doubt, will be dug in Friday night to try and stop little David Erwin, Eagle whirlwind who ran circles around Phillips during the first half of the last Friday's win.

Grades for last week's play were handed out this week by Goode to Eagle team members.

Highest grade was to Richard Thompson, 150-pound senior center, who tallied a 100, other grades for linemen were Chris Hull, another center, with 94; Pat Hickman, offensive end, with 89; Gary Schriber, offensive guard, with 90.

Grades for the forcing portion of the defense are James Boyce, linebacker, 99; Andy Hanson, defensive end, 85; Rick Hales, linebacker, 82; and John Lewis, defensive end, 82.

Grades for backs are Lonnie Moore, wingback, 92; David Erwin, back, 81; Bayless, back, and Jerry Carlile, back, 87.

Olton whipped the Eagles last season 20-9.

Rev. and Mrs. Ray Custer of Grace Baptist Church will host an open house for church members and guests on Sunday from 2-5 p.m. at their home.
